

MAINTENANCE TECHNICIAN

Essential Functions of the Job

- Troubleshoot, repair, and maintain equipment and facility.
- Troubleshoot and repair electrical, mechanical, hydraulic, and pneumatic systems and devices.
- Fabricate and modify machine parts and job tooling.
- Perform preventive maintenance tasks.
- Install, set up, and relocate plant equipment.
- Complete PMs and work orders using computerized maintenance management system.
- Follow all safety procedures and work efficiently through troubleshooting, repair, installation, and PM tasks.
- Work well with other employees to contribute to the overall goals of the department and company.
- Participate in Housekeeping and Food Safety Programs, complete daily housekeeping records, and maintain a safe and organized work area for all employees.
- Perform all duties necessary to ensure production, quality, and safety.

Physical Requirements of the Job

- Work is done in a manufacturing environment.
- Requires standing, sitting, stooping, lifting, turning, walking, climbing, squatting, crouching, kneeling, crawling, bending at waist, twisting body continuously, talking, hearing, climbing stairs and ladders, reaching with hands and arms, and using hands to handle or feel parts/equipment for 8-12 hours a day and for duration of shift.
- May require some lifting up to 50lbs for duration of shift

Qualifications

- The ability to read and comprehend written or oral instruction, technical data, blueprints, schematics, etc. and the ability to communicate effectively with others.
- Must work well with and assist other employees and work with minimum supervision.
- Must have excellent problem solving and troubleshooting skills.
- Must have electrical, mechanical, hydraulic, and pneumatic experience.
- Must have the ability to work with basic PC programs.
- Must have good math, reading, and writing skills.
- Must have own tools.
- Ability to properly use all power and non-power hand tools to safely perform job tasks.
- Ability to operate a forklift and aerial lifts by obtaining annual certification.

Pay range $19.77 – $30.12 based on experience and skill